Dear Sir

An error was found in the Filing Receipt for the above noted new application. This case was originally filed as a provisional application, and to distinguish this case from the non-provisional when filed, an "L" is inserted after our docket number for the provisional application. Unfortunately, this "L" was not removed when the application documents for the non-provisional case were prepared. Accordingly, we would appreciate it if a corrected Filing Receipt would be issued showing our correct docket number of DN2002132.

Please contact me at (330) 796-3151 should you have any questions, and thank you for your assistance.

Very truly yours,

Henry C. Young
